BE KIND TO EACH OTHER.

Be kind to each other!
The night's coming on,
When friend and when brother
Perchance may be gone!
Then midst our dejection
How sweet to have earned
The blest recollection
Of kindness—returned!
When day has departed,
And memory keeps
Her watch, broken-hearted,
Where all she loved sleeps!

Let falsehood assail not,
Nor envy disprove—
Let trifles prevail not Against those ye love!
Nor change with to-morrow
Should fortune take wing;
But the deeper the sorrow
The closer still cling!
Oh! be kind to each other!
The night's coming on,
When friend and when brother
Perchance may be gone!

CONSTANCY.

'Tis sweet to know we have a friend,
Unwavering as the sea-girt rock;
Where storms in vain their fury spend,
And naught but waves roll from the shock.

Unmoved, unflinching, there it stands,
(Though ocean's waves around it roar,)
Unlike the gay coquettish sands,
That sparkle on the distant shore.

And such a friend methinks is mine,
As pure as is the morning due;
Unchanging with the change of time,
As constant as the rock is true.

SLEEP.

O, magic sleep! O comfortable bird,
That broodest o'er the troubled sea of the mind,
Till it is hush'd and smooth! O unconfined
Restraint! imprisoned liberty! great key
To golden palaces, stranger minstrelsy,
Fountains grotesque, new trees, bespangled caves,
Echoing grottoes full of tumbling waves
And moonlight; aye, to all the many world
Of silvery enchantment!—who unfurl'd
Beneath thy drowsy wing a triple hour,
But renovates and lives!

A HEROINE OF SEVENTY-SIX.

BY MRS. M. A. DENNISON.

I don't like to hear the noise of these hammers. The dull song of laboring picks breaks upon the ear with monotonous regularity. They are making tracks for a railroad in this old town. I am not pleased with the "improvements," as some call it, for a pleasant farmhouse and its surrounding fields that sloped from high and undulating hills have vanished before its nod. The great genius of enterprise, with his ugly shears of commerce, is clipping at the poor wings of poverty and romance, till, I fear, by and by, they will only have power to flap along the ground, their etherial faculties chained down to stock taking and invoices.

I am sorry the house has gone, for there are some recollections connected with its history for the sake of which it would be pleasant could it have been spared. An old farm-house surrounded by fields of waving grain and corn, in the autumn time, overhung by branches of various trees, golden with the fullness of time, is a sight of picturesque beauty in a rich valley, especially if a fine old mountain looms up in the background, or a deep shade of forest trees stretches away into the clear, mellow atmosphere beyond.

In that one before us (I am speaking now as if it stood in the old spot) the widow of the noble Captain Piermont lived some twenty years ago. The lady was a fine specimen of old time women; dignified, even commanding in manner, with a fresh bloom upon her cheeks, artificially moulded forehead, and a deep earnest expression in her bright eyes. She was a woman of refined and cultivated intellectual powers, a woman who in youth had known no stint of wealth, whose mind was stored with classic lore, who had never, till she emigrated to the wilderness of the New World, soiled her fingers with even household work.

Father and husband were both dead. The bones of the former reposed in another country, beneath a marble monument; the latter had now slept two years in the little burying ground beside the wooden church in sight of the red farm house, and a small gray stone marked the spot where his ashes mingled with the dust.

One day during the hardest campaign of our soldiers, Madame Piermont was alone at the farm. Pomp, a negro servant, had gone on an errand which would detain him until nightfall, and Alek the hired man, had wounded his hand with an axe, so that he was quite disabled and obliged to return to his home, about a mile distant, which, by the way, was the nearest homestead to the old farm house. The widow's four brave sons of ages varying from eighteen to twenty-six, had started but two days previous for their country's field of battle.

While the widow realized that in all probability, some, perhaps all, would be smitten by the ruthless hand of war, her cheek was still unblanched and holy hope sat in the repose of her beautiful features. Only now and then, she turned to open the Bible before her and read a few consoling passages, and straightway resumed her work with a trusting smile. Ah! patriotism found an endearing home in many such a gentle breast.

Suddenly from a distance came a sound like the trampling of horses feet, and a great cloud of dust betokened the approach of travellers hurrying to their destination. The widow moved to the door and shading her eyes from the intense sunshine, watched their progress. They drew nearer, and in another moment three horsemen drove up before the door. They wore military costume and were all fine looking men. The foremost gentleman by far exceeded the others by his imposing figure, and the greatness of his countenance. It needed no introduction to assure the widow that this was George Washington. With that character which always characterised him, he bowed gracefully to Madame Piermont, as he blandly asked if he could find rest and refreshment.

"Our horses are wearied; we have ridden since this morning and would fain recruit," he added.

"Certainly, gentlemen, and welcome," she replied, smilingly, throwing wide open the inner door as they dismounted.

"Our poor beasts," said one of the officers, patting his smoking horse "I would they could be attended to immediately. Is there a groom or servant about your house, Madame, who could rub them down and feed them?" I will reward him liberally."

"We would ask no reward in this household, sir," replied the widow; "if you will lead them around they will be cared for."

"Make yourself perfectly comfortable, gentlemen," said the widow; "and excuse me while I prepare your refreshments. You must be hungry as well as fatigued."

In another minute the widow was in the stable unsaddling the poor horses—work to which she was not accustomed, but which, nevertheless she could do in time, being a woman of strong muscular frame and great energy. She knew it must be done by herself or not at all. As for men and horses they were completely jaded out. She with straw rubbed the animals down with her own hands, led them into stalls and prepared and give them food. After changing her dress the widow again returned to the parlor, where the officers having unbuckled their swords and doffed their caps, sat conversing together evidently enjoying a delightful rest. As the widow stepped over the threshold of the room, one of the officers was remarking to his companions—

"He was one of the best men; and as fine looking a young fellow as ever volunteered."

"Do you speak of young Piermont?" asked another.

"Yes, he fell yesterday pierced by three balls, poor fellow; it was a hard fate for such a boy."

For one moment the cheek of the widow was blanched, the heart of the mother shocked, but she spoke almost calmly as she asked:

"Which one was it, sir?"

"Henry Piermont, if I am not mistaken. Was he known to you?"

Was he known to her? Oh, the torment that followed that question! Henry! Her noble first born! He who had taken the place of the dead at their board, and with a gravity beyond his years carried out the plans his father had left unfinished. And now his blue eyes were closed forever! his bright locks rolled in the dust! Oh! the thought was anguish! A deathly paleness came over her, but she rallied with a great effort, and said as calmly as before, as she turned her whitened cheeks away:

"He was my son, sir."

They did not see her face as she walked quickly and firmly from the room.

"Now, God forgive me! I feel as if I had done a cowardly thing," murmured the officer while his lips grew pale with emotion. "Coming here to partake of this woman's hospitality, I have cruelly stabbed her to the heart"

"You are not to blame, my friend," said Washington, in his deep tones, in which was blended a sudden pathos. "Neither, if I read her aright, would she recall the child bravely fallen in his country's cause. This is no common woman—her very face speaks of her soul's nobility. Mark me, when you next see her, she will be tearless; no word of sorrow will issue from her lips. Our mothers, our wives—I am proud to say it—are heroines in this trying period. And this, he continued, pointing to the Bible, "this is the secret of their greatness; whenever you behold that volume opened, bearing evidence of constant perusal, there you will find woman capable of any emergency. I repeat it it, when we meet again she will be calm and tearless although a mother bereaved of her child."

And so it was, Madame Piermont had schooled her grief for the time into a sudden and sacred submission, and the officers were called into another room to partake of the smoking viands she had prepared, they found her collected, unchanged in her manner, and serene in countenance. The officer from whom the news had so rudely burst, was lost in admiration of her conduct, and was often heard to say, subsequently, that he venerated women more for her sake.

Towards night the trio departed, thanking the kind woman with grateful hearts for the courtesy. They found their horses ready saddled and were forced to conjecture that Madame Piermont had herself performed the duty of hostler.

General Washington kindly took her hand before he mounted his charger, and addressed her tenderly and affectionately. Tears came to the eyes of the officers while they listened, but though an increasing pallor overspread the widow's face, she murmured:

"I am thankful, thankful to my God, sir, that He has deemed me worthy of demanding my first born in this glorious struggle; he was ready, sir, for life or death."

But when they had gone, and she returned to the silence of that lone house, the mother wept exceedingly bitter tears. Draw we the curtain before her sacred anguish.

Farewell, old Piermont house, with your carpet of mallows, and old-fashioned flowers in old fashioned pots standing upon the stoop. I feel sad at the thought that I shall never again see its doors wreathed in vines, whereon hung clusters of luxuriating grapes; nor its windows on the lower floor, all opened with the white curtains of snowy white muslin floating with a dreamy, undulating motion in the pleasant breeze.

READ ALOUD.

Reading aloud is one of those exercises which combines mental and muscular effort, and hence has a double advantage. It is an accomplishment which may be cultivated alone—perhaps better than under a teacher—for then a naturalness of intonation will be required from instinct rather than art; the most that is required being that the person practicing should make an effort to command the mind of the author, the sense of the subject.

To read aloud well, a person should not only understand the subject, but should hear his own voice, and feel within him that every syllable was distinctly enunciated, while there is an instinct presiding which modulates the voice to the number and distance of the hearers. Every public speaker ought to be able to tell whether he is indistinctly heard by the farthest auditor in the room; if he is not, it is from a want of proper judgment and observation.

Reading aloud helps to develope the lungs just as singing does, if properly performed. The effect is to induce the drawing of a long breath every once in a while, oftener and deeper than of reading without enunciating. These deep inhalations never fail to develop the capacity of the lungs in direct proportion to their practice.

Common consumption begins uniformly with imperfect, insufficient breathing; it is the characteristic of the disease that the breath becomes shorter and shorter through weary months, down to the close of life, and whatever counteracts that short breathing, whatever promotes deeper inspirations, is curative to the extent, inevitably and under all circumstances. Let any person make the experiment by reading this page aloud, and in less than three minutes the instinct of a long breath will show itself. This reading aloud developes a weak voice, and makes it sonorous. It has great efficiency, also, in making the tones clear and distinct, freeing them from that annoying hoarseness which the unaccustomed reader exhibits before he has gone over half a page, when he has to stop and hem, and clear away, to the confusion of himself as much as that of the subject.

This loud reading, when properly done, has a great agency in inducing vocal power, on the same principle that all muscles are strengthened by exercise, those of the voice-making organs being no exception to the general rule. Hence, in many cases, absolute silence diminishes the vocal power, just as the protracted non-use of the arm of the Hindoo devotee at length paralyzes it forever. The general plan, in appropriate cases, is to read aloud in a conversational tone, thrice a day, for a minute or two, or three, at a time, increasing a minute every other day, until half an hour is thus spent at a time, thrice a day, which is to be continued until the desired object is accomplished. Managed thus there is safety and efficiency as a uniform result.

As a means, then, of health, of averting consumption, of being universal and entertaining in any company, as a means of showing the quality of the mind, but reading aloud should be considered an accomplishment far more indispensable than that of smattering French, lisping Italian, or growling Dutch, or dancing cotilions, gallopades, polkas, and quadrilles.—Hall's Journal of Health.

THE MAN WHO DON'T PAY THE PRINTER.—May he be shod with lightning, and compelled to walk over plains of gunpowder.

May every day of his life be more despotic than than the Dey of Algiers.

May he have sore eyes, and a chestnut burr for an eye-stone.

May he never be permitted to kiss a pretty woman.

May his sheets be sprinkled with cowage and with bed-bugs, and fleas be the sharers of his couch.

May 240 night-mares trot quarter races over his stomach every night.

May his wife be always cross, and his baby ever on the squall.

May his demijohn always be full of blue devil rot gut.

May his coffee be sweetened with flies, and his soup seasoned with spiders.

May a troop of printer's "devils," lean, lank, gaunt and grim, and a regiment of cats, caterwaul under his chamber window each night.

In short, may his business go to ruin, and he go to ——the Legislature.

A TOUCHING APPEAL.—"Morgan, spare that dog, touch not a single hair; he worries many a hog from out his muddy lair. Oh, when he was a pup, so frisky and so plump, he lapped his milk from a cup, when hungry—at a jump. And then his funny tricks, so funny in their place, so full of canine licks upon hands and face. You will surely let him live! Oh, do not kill him—dead; he wags his narrative and prays for life—not lead. Go get the muzzle now, and put upon his mouth, and stop that bow, bow, bow! and tendency to drought. He is your children's pet, companion of their joy; you will not kill him yet, and thus their hopes destroy. No, Morgan, spare that pup, and go away from there!"

THE HAPPY LAND.—Some "feller," (we think it was a morning newspaper typo) with a hankering after an elysium, thus "sighs his soul away:"

"O, is there not a happy land—
A land beyond the seas—
Where pot-pie smokes in boundless lakes,
And dumplings grow on trees?
Where gingerbread is found in stacks,
And 'shmearcase' by the tun,
And when you do a job of work
You get the 'ready John'?
Where Nature's lessons may be read,
In every babbling brook?
Where humble bees don't sting a chap,
And mulley cows don't hook?"

ABSTEMIOUS DIET.—Said a young gentleman to a distinguished medical practitioner in Philadelphia, "Doctor, what do you do for yourself when you have a turn of the headache, or other slight attacks?" "Go without my dinner," was the reply. "And if that does not cure you, what then?" "Go without my supper." "But if that does not cure you, what then?" "Go without my breakfast. We physicians seldom take medicines ourselves, or use them in our families, for we know that abstinence is better, but we cannot make our patients believe it."

☞ A young lady, lately, asked a gentleman the meaning of the word surrogate; and the gentleman explained it to her, as a gate through which parties have to pass to get married. "Then, I imagine," said the lady, "that it is a corruption of sorrow-gate." "You are right, Miss," replied her informant, "as woman is an abbreviation of woe-to-man."

OLD LETTERS.—Never burn kindly letters.—It is so pleasant to read them over when the ink is brown, the paper yellow with age, and the hands that traced the friendly words, lie folded over the hearts that prompted them, under the green sod.

Above all, never burn love-letters. To read them in after years is like a a resurrection of one's youth. The elderly spinster finds in the impassioned offer she foolishly rejected twenty years ago, a fountain of rejuvenescence. Glancing over it she realizes that she was once a belle and a beauty and beholds her former self in a mirror much more congenial to her taste than the one that confronts her in her dressing room. The "widow indeed" derives a sweet and solemn consolation from the letters of the beloved one, who has just journied before her to the far off land, from which there comes no messages, and where she hopes one day to join him. No photographer can so vividly recall to the memory of a mother, the tenderness and devotion of the children who have left her at the call of Heaven, as the epistolary outpourings of their filial love. The letter of a true son or daughter to a true mother, is something better than an image of the features; it is a reflex of the writer's soul.

Keep all loving letters, burn only the harsh and cruel ones, and in burning, forget and forgive them.

OUR TURN MUST COME.—"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt, as we feel, and their lives were as active as our own. They passed like a vapor, while Nature wore the same of beauty as when her Creator commanded her to be. The heavens shall be as bright over our graves as they now are around our paths. The world will have the same attractions for our offspring yet unborn, that she had once for us as children. Yet a little while and all will have happened. The throbbing heart will be stifled, and we shall be at rest.—Our funeral will find its way, and prayers will be said, and then we shall be left alone in silence and darkness for the worms. And it may be for a short time we shall be spoken of, but the things of life will creep in, and our names will soon be forgotten. Days will continue to move on, and laughter and song will be heard in the room in which we died; and the eye that mourned for us will be dried, and glisten again with joy; and even our children will cease to think of, and will not remember to lisp our names."

A THRILLING ROMANCE.—Chapter 1.—She stood beside the alter, with a wreath of orange buds upon her head—upon her back the richest kind of duds—her lover stood beside her with white kids and dickey clean—the last was twenty-one years old, the first was seventeen.—The parson's job was over—every one had kissed the bride, and wished the young folks happiness, and danced and laughed and cried. The last kiss had been given, and the last word had been said, and the happy pair had simmered down and the last guest had fled. Chapter 11, —She stood beside the washtub, with her red hands in the suds, and at her slip shod feet there lay a pile of dirty duds—her husband stood beside—the crossest man alive—the last was twenty-nine years old and the first was twenty-five. The heavy wash was over, and the clothes hung up to dry—and Tom had stuck his fingers in the dirty baby's eye. Tom had been spanked and the supper made upon a crust of bread, and the bride and bridegroom went grumbling off to bed.

NEW METHOD OF DEPRIVING ANIMALS OF LIFE.—The means proposed for instantly depriving animals of life consists in the introduction of air into the venous system. The effect of this upon vital action was accidentally discovered by Doctor Auber during a surgical operation. It is asserted that this method is not only painless, but that it offers no difficulty in regard to the subsequent preparation of the animal for food. In this case we may hope that the kindly purpose for which the uninviting investigation of the practices of slaughter-houses was undertaken, may not fail of effect in diminishing the sufferings which now end the career of our slaughtered animals.

IRISH WIT.—A lawyer built himself an office, in the form of an hexagon, or six square. The novelty of the structure attracted the attention of some Irishmen who were passing; they made a full stop and viewed it critically. The lawyer, somewhat disgusted at their curiosity, lifted up the window, put his head out, and addressed them: "What do you stand there gazing at my office for—do you think it's a church?" "Faix," answered one of them, "I was thinking so, till I saw the devil poke his head out of the windy."

POWER IN A WOMAN'S EYE.—A lady, when the conversation turned on dynamics, asked the late George Stephenson, the celebrated engineer, "What do you consider the most powerful force in nature?" "I will soon answer that question," said he; "it is the eye of a woman, (to the man that loves her;) for if a woman looks with affection on a man, should he go to the uttermost ends of the earth, the recollection of that look will bring him back."

☞ "Ma, I am going to make some soft soap for the fair this fall," said a beautiful miss of seventeen to her

The Tyrone Star Again.

Last week we promised that we would this week give attention to the reply of the Tyrone Star to our last article in reply to the charges that that paper has brought against the Tribune. Were it not that we have promised a reply, we would not give it, as the article in the Star is certainly not worth noticing, but having given a promise we will fulfil it, hoping that this may be the last time we shall be called upon to notice so trifling an object.

After the manner in which the Star bore down upon us when it first opened this needless controversy, we did not expect to find it so early backing water in the manner it did last week. The editor of that paper doubtless imagined that we would treat his onset upon us with silent contempt, as did others here and elsewhere whom he assailed, but he found out his mistake, and now that he is likely to receive a little more than he bargained for, he is anxious to get out of the scrape as fast as possible. We have no more desire for a personal controvery than the editor of the Star, yet when he assails us in a manner which leaves personalities our only means of defence, we will use them; and if the result has been the exposition of some private matters which, for his credit, had better remained so, he must blame himself. He don't appear to like our manner of calling things by their proper names; but we can't help it; it's a fashion we have. We never, "Jerry Sneak" like, insinuate that which we do not know to be true and cannot prove, or say other than what we mean and will stand by.

In reference to the Tom Ford affair, we said in our last that we wanted no more of it without the proof, and now we have it. Out of his own mouth is the editor of the Star condemned. The insinuations in relation to Tom Ford were intended to sustain the charge that the Tribune is a Republican paper. In last week's issue of the Star the editor says that he knows we never received one cent of Tom Ford's money. What then has Tom Ford to do with the matter, and why has his name been brought in? This is inexplicable to us. What we remarked during a private conversation with the editor of the Star, to which he refers, was merely surmises as to what might have became of money which might have been given to some person to be handed over to us in case we would do certain things, but it in no way sustained his charge of Republicanism, made against the Tribune. We now come to ask why the editor of the Star insinuated that which he knew to be untrue?—Simply to endeavor to injure us, pecuniarily, by arraying a certain political party against us. Is such conduct honorable? We leave the public to decide, only remarking that we forgive him, as he is impotent to harm.

The county records are again referred to by the Star, and the charge twisted into another shape. He now says arrangements were made for us thereon by the political friends of Mr. Blair. This he knows to be an unblushing falsehood. We positively deny that any arrangement was ever made on said record for us by any political friend of Mr. Blair, and no arrangements are to be found recorded there other than those which the law allowed us to make. We dare the editor of the Star to prove by the record, or a single witness, one word that he has written in relation thereto. Why is it that the Star evinces such a dislike to drag before the public the names of those by whom he says can substantiate his charges, and yet every weak drags into his columns the names of private citizens here and elsewhere, for the purpose of injuring or ridiculing them, simply because they do not think as he does on political subjects. There is something rotten here, and we know where. The truth is he has no proof, and dare not mention the name of an individual. To us this refusing to give names appears a very lame way of getting out of a very tight place. But it is characteristic of the man; he only tells truth when he can't help it. But as we are merciful, we forgive him this offence also, knowing his failing.

He still continues to assert that we did make an offer to the Bell-Everett party, but of an entirely different character from the one we noticed last week as having been made, in a joking way, to a person in this place, and he dares us to say that we know nothing about it. We do say, most emphatically, that we know nothing of any offer to any banker or Bell-Everett man, and we say further that whoever asserts that we ever made an offer to that party, for money or reward, as intimated, is a villainous slanderer and falsifier, and he dare not publish the charge over his own signature. Our "castor" is in the ring and if the man who gave Jolly his information can "come to time," we hope he will do so.

And now, as we have denied the last charge, we suppose the Star man is satisfied with us, if, indeed, he was not two weeks since. Our language and grammar does not sit lightly on his classical stomach, which evinces dyspepsia, but he is informed that we bake our dough, in this particular, to suit ourselves, not him. His last article was headed "A Parting Word," consequently we have no hope of hearing from him again, "wot a pity." He concludes by saying that no attack we may ever make on him hereafter will induce him to descend again to our level. "How we apples swim." Before he takes his everlasting flight to regions of illimitable space, where none but "big bugs" dwell, we hope he will descend for a minute, or less, just long enough to fix that little matter which we reminded him of some two weeks since, and then he may elevate himself as far above us as his conceited imagination will carry him.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A destructive fire occurred in Philadelphia, on the morning of the 19th, destroying the five story building known as the Franklin Buildings, on 6th street, below Arch. The fire originated in the book-bindery of Duncan White, on the fourth floor, and destroyed some $2,500 worth of property belonging to him. The third floor occupied by W. S. Young, general Job Printer, was deluged with water, several forms of newspapers and periodicals knocked into pi, and other damage done. Mr. Young can form no estimate of his loss. Smith & Peters, stereotype printers, occupied the second floor and sustained damage to the amount of $2,000 or $3,000. The loss to building, stocks, machinery, &c., is estimated at $15,000.

THE "PLUG UGLIES" AND "BLOOD TUBS" DEFEATED.—Baltimore city has at last relieved herself of the rule of the ruffian clubs which have so long been the terror of all her good citizens. The organizations of "Plug Uglies," "Blood Tubs," "Killers," "Rip Raps," &c., which have so long held almost undisputed sway at the ballot box, preventing all but those who voted with them from depositing their votes, have been overcome by a reform party, composed of the honest and peaceable citizens of the city. The reform candidate for Mayor was elected by nearly ten thousand majority, and that party had a majority in every ward in the city.

STRANGE MORTALITY.—We have already noticed the fatality attending the disease known as diptheria, or putrid sore throat, in various sections of the country. In a number of families two, three and five children have died in quick succession. One family in Delaware county recently lost eight children within a period of four weeks. This alarming malady, which makes such terrible havoc amongst the young, seems to be to a great extent unmanageable, baffling the skill of the best physicians on its first appearance, but gradually takes a milder stage, as has been noticed in cholera epidemics, where it continues in one locality, and readily yields to early medical treatment.

OREGON U. S. SENATORIAL ELECTION.—On the 8th instant, news reached San Francisco, by telegraph, that the Oregon Senatorial election took place at Salem, on the 2d instant, in due legal form. J. A. Smith, a Douglas Democrat, was elected for the long term, and E. D. Baker, Republican, for the short term, 5 years. Baker is a non-intervention Republican, with views similar to Eli Thayer.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ A. J. Greer has retired from the editorial chair of the Juniata True Democrat.

☞ San Francisco, by the new census has a population of only about 65,000, and the State 450,000.

☞ The Norwegians are raising money to build a College in Iowa. Twenty thousand dollars have already been raised for this purpose.

☞ A woman recently married, at Taunton, Mass., in a frenzy of jealousy, on Monday night, attacked her husband with a razor, dreadfully mutilating him.

☞ An acquaintance of ours, at Mifflintown, recently caught an eel in the river, at that place, which weighed 7 pounds and 3 ounces, and measured 3 feet 9 inches in length.

☞ A son of James Clark, Esq., of Birmingham, was severely injured on the 12th inst., by a wagon containing a barrel of vinegar breaking down, and the barrel falling upon his legs.

☞ A party of drunken men returning to Colerain, Ohio, on Sunday night week, two lagged behind to quarrel, when one beat the other to death with a club, and returning to his companions, said he had "fixed him."

☞ The man in Mercer county, Ohio, who put strychnine in his water-melons, and thus killed five persons who were depredating on his vines, has been indicted for manslaughter.

☞ A teacher out West, in advertising his academy, gives the boys warning beforehand that "the use of tobacco will not be permitted, and all male students will be required to wear suspenders!"

☞ The seat of justice in Cameron county, named after General Simon Cameron, has been located at Shippen, by the Commissioners appointed for that purpose by the Governor.

☞ No Temptation.—Many a man thinks it is a virtue that keeps him from turning a rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful, and not mistake potatoes for principles.

☞ Remedy for Bronchitis—We see it stated that common salt-petre, dissolved in the mouth, is a remedy for the bronchitis, and that a penny's worth is sufficient to relieve any one. The cure is a simple and cheap one.

☞ There exists in Ireland at present about seventy towns, containing from ten to twenty-five thousand inhabitants, without a bookseller's shop; and six whole counties are found without either a publisher, bookseller or circulating library.

☞ Henry Ward Beecher's latest "crotchet" is that the clergy ought to preach only once on a Sunday. He says that "no preacher who is fit to preach a sermon is fit to preach more than one a day, and no man is fit to hear more, or if he does he is not fit for much else. Sermons are like boy's pop guns; however many wads you put in, it's the last wad that drives the others out."

☞ A Cruel Joke.—A wag perpetrated a severe joke on a Cincinnati merchant the other day, sending him three counterfeit $10, pretending that he was returning a loan previously made by the victim of the loan. The merchant went to his wife, not remembering the loan, and finally gave her the money to buy a bonnet. The lady went to a milliner, bought the bonnet, and actually paid for it with the three counterfeit ten dollar bills.

☞ Another Blondon Feat.—Mons. Blondin has finally determined to keep on doing wonderful feats until he gets his neck broke. His last performance was walking on stilts over a rope stretched between two points elevated 200 feet above the ground, at Jones' Wood, New York.—The distance traveled was about 1200 feet, and the time consumed in making the journey was precisely nineteen minutes.

☞ A New York Flunkey.—We are informed that at the Prince of Wales' ball, during a momentary pause, in which the royal guest waited for the partner selected for him for the next set, some insane flunkey who happened to be near with a daughter on his arm, seeing what struck him as a golden opportunity, wisked forward with the most obsequious impudence, hastily ejaculating. "I see your royal highness is unengaged—allow me to introduce my daughter!"

Pennsylvania Election—Official.

Below we give the official vote of the State at the late election, with the exception of Forrest county, and the vote in that county is so small and nearly tied that it will not change the majority of Curtin over 10 or 12 votes either way. Curtin's majority, according to the following table, is $2,024. The first two columns is the vote given last year for Auditor General:

P. S. Official vote since received. Curtin's majority 32,164.

HEALTHFULNESS OF APPLES.—There is scarcely an article of vegetable food, says Hall's Journal of Health, more widely useful, and more universally loved, than the apple. Why every farmer in the nation has not an apple orchard, where the trees will grow at all, is one of the mysteries. Let every family lay in from two to ten or more barrels, and it will be to them the most economical investment in the whole range of culinaries. A raw, mellow apple is digested in an hour and a half, while boiled cabbage requires five hours. The most healthy desert which can be placed on a table, is a baked apple. If taken freely at breakfast, with coarse bread and butter, without meat or flesh of any kind, it has an admirable effect on the general system, often removes constipation, correcting acidities, and cooling off fabrile conditions more effectually than the most approved medicines. If families could be induced to substitute the apple—sound, ripe and luscious—for the pies, cakes, candies, sweet-meats, with which their children are too often indiscreetly stuffed, there would be a diminution in the sum total of doctors' bills in a single year, sufficient to lay in a stock of this delicious fruit for a whole season's use.

☞ At the Western Railroad depot, in Springfield, Massachusetts, an engineer, being in want of a cider barrel, quietly helped himself to an oil cask, and then sought advice as to the best mode of destroying the oil taste. By the advice of a friend, he filled it with unslacked lime and water, and the gas generated so rapidly that the barrel exploded, covering his engine with lime, oil and dirty water.

☞ A little girl in Leeds died recently from wounds inflicted by a game cock. Blood flowed freely several days, and inflammation of the brain ensued. The bird had attacked several persons in the same way, and was finally killed by the owner.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

To Consumptives.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address.

MESSRS. JOHN WILCOX & CO.:—Your "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm," has done wonders. I was wholly despondent and wretched when I applied it, and in five hours the chills were removed and no fever has ensued. It is the simplest cure imaginable, and a wonder of nature or art. I would not be without this "Inpectine" a single hour.—By constantly wearing I seem to be "ague proof."

Yours very truly, E. M. STOUT.

MOBILE, Alabama, July 23d, 1860.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been snatched from the grave by the application of your wonderful "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm." For several years I have suffered every season from Fever and Ague. Last Spring my life was threatened, but your remedy has destroyed the disease and I am rapidly gaining an appetite and strength.

Respectfully yours, D. N. BARRON.

This truly wonderful preventive and cure for Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers will be sent mail, post paid, on receipt of one dollar. Also for sale at all respectable Druggists and Country Stores.

Chairs! Chairs!! Chairs!!!

Concentration is evidently the secret of success and no one can deny this fact who will visit THE PREMIUM CANE SEAT CHAIR MANUFACTORY and WARE ROOMS at Nos. 223 and 225 North Sixth Street, opposite Franklin Square, Philadelphia.

Mr. I. H. Wisler, the energetic and intelligent proprietor of the establishment, gives his individual attention to the manufacture of this single article—Cane Seat Chairs, and can without doubt furnish the best Chairs for less money than they can be purchased elsewhere. His stock embraces the greatest variety of fashionable and elegant styles, suitable for Parlors, Drawing Rooms, Dining Rooms, or Chambers, also Ladies' Sewing Rockers, Children's Chairs &c., that is to be found in Philadelphia. His ambition is to furnish the best article for the least money and with shrewd business calculation he has located himself where rent is low yet in a central and prominent place. Every body can remember Franklin Square and it is the best guide to his extensive Ware Rooms. To any one and every one wishing to purchase chairs we say emphatically that no one supply a better article or afford to sell at a lower price than Mr. I. H. WISLER. [Oct. 4, 1860.—1m.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Barhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

(Ed. Sheboygan Nieuwsbode, Sheboygan, Wis.)

☞ It is a common observation that there are more sufferers from debility, among Americans than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reasons are obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his CELEBRATED BITTERS. The weak and nervous denizen of the counting house, the exhausted toiler upon the shop-board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful repenerator in the "Bitters," and prefer it to more pretentious, but less efficacious medicines. But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is so magical in its influence upon a frame which is merely debilitated, is equally powerful in assisting nature to expel the most terrible form of disease. Who would not give it a trial?

Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere.

Infantile Cordial.

We would request particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. CHURCH & DUPONT, addressed to "Mothers." The INFANTILE CORDIAL OF DR. EATON is a medicine of great celebrity, and the standing of its manufacturers will be a sufficient guarantee of the care taken in its unvarying purity. The "BLOOD FOOD" is for a class of diseases unfortunately very prevalent in this vicinity, and its high reputation should ensure a ready sale.—Willimantic (Conn.) Journal. ☞ See advertisement.

FOR SALE.—THE SUBSCRIBERS offer at Private Sale, an excellent DRAUGHT MARE, a first rate YORK SPRING WAGON, (with cover) and a sett of HARNESS.

Also—One of CLARK'S CELEBRATED FLOURING MILLS, which is competent to manufacture two barrels of flour per hour. It is ready to set up, with the exception of the bolt, which can be attached with trifling cost.

A Novelty in the Art World!

PHOTOGRAPHY UPON PORCELAIN.

Secured by letters patent in the United States, England, France, and Belgium.

THE AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHIC PORCELAIN COMPANY, No. 781 Broadway, New York, having secured their novel and ingenious invention by American and European patents, are fully prepared to execute all orders for presenting all the attractive and advantageous features of ordinary photographs, the brilliancy and finish of a water-color drawing, and a hitherto unattained quality of durability, by being rendered as imperishable as the natural properties of the articles upon which they are transferred.

As the patented process of the Company enables the reproduction of Photographs, not only on plain surfaces, but upon such as are round or of any degree of irregularity, portraits can be reproduced with faultless accuracy, and delicacy of delineation, upon Porcelain wares of any description and dimension used as articles of luxury or of household utility, such as thereby securing faithful portraits and furnishing a unique and exquisite style of ornamentation of articles in domestic use.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the Fine Arts desirous of having Portraits on Porcelain, the Company have imported from Europe a collection of superior porcelain goods, manufactured to their own order, which they sell at cost prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right, and consequently the only persons authorised to use the process, they have determined, in order

To afford People in every section of the Union

an opportunity to possess

PORTRAITS ON CHINA,

to make the following proposition to Residents in the Country, who are unable to visit personally the Atelier and Galleries in New York.

Persons sending a photograph, ambrotype, or daguerreotype to the office of the Company in New York, accompanied by

they will secure in like manner,

A handsome French Vase or Toilet Article, with the Portrait reproduced by the patented process.

By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and

FIFTEEN DOLLARS,

they will receive in return

A Pair of rich Sevres Vases, with the portraits executed equal to miniature paintings; and, in like manner, portraits can be reproduced on porcelain wares or

Vases of every Quality of Finish, ranging in price from

Twenty to One Hundred Dollars the Pair.

N. B.—Be particular in writing the address, town, county and State distinctly.

LOCAL ITEMS.

S. S. EXHIBITION.—The exhibitions given by the scholars connected with the M. E. Sunday School in this place, which came off on Thursday and Friday evening's last, was, in the language of all we have head speak of them, a perfect success. The best evidence of their merit is in the fact that the church was as well filled on the second evening as the first. There was in them that which gives spice to life—variety. The performers played their parts admirably and a few deserve more than a passing notice, but we will not particularize, lest we should be charged with invidiousness. We must say, however, that to the young ladies engaged in it belongs most of the credit, although some of the boys acted out their parts admirably. We doubt whether better entertainments of the kind could be got up in any other town in the country, at least we have never seen better ones and we have attended several. The proceeds of the exhibitions netted over $70 to the church.

GOOD WILL.—At a meeting of the Good Will Fire Engine and Hose Company, held on the evening of the 16th inst., the Board of Directors were appointed a committee to receive donations from the citizens of Altoona and suburbs for the purpose of paying the balance due on their Fire Engine.

Committee for East Ward—A. A. Smyth, J. F. Maxwell, J. H. Tinker; for West Ward—S. Potts, D. Traves, L. Wilhelm; for North Ward—J. R. Russell, W. A. Boyden, R. O'Donnell.

An election for officers to serve during the ensuing year, was held and resulted in the choice of the following persons:

President—J. H. Tinker.
Vice President—A. A. Smyth.
Secretary—R. O'Donnell.
Treasurer—A. Maxwell.
Board of Directors—A. A. Smyth, J. H. Tinker, D. Traves, J. K. Russell, W. A. Boyden, R. O'Donnell, S. Potts, J. F. Maxwell, L. Wilhelm.

RAILROAD CONDUCTOR ARRESTED.—We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph that Andrew Roloff, formerly a Conductor on the Penn'a R. R., and who was Conductor of the train which ran into a crowd of people at Huntingdon a few weeks since, and killed two men and injured another, was recently arrested in Harrisburg, on a warrant issued by a Huntingdon magistrate, charging him with manslaughter. The Coroner's jury which investigated the affair at Huntingdon rendered a verdict that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the employees who had charge of the train, and warrants were issued for the arrest of Andrew Roloff, the conductor, and Wm. Armstrong, the engineer. Armstrong has not yet been arrested. How a case can be made out against Roloff we cannot imagine.

P. S. Since penning the above we learn that Mr. Armstrong, the engineer, went to Huntingdon and surrendered himself to the authorities, after which he gave bail in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance at next Court and was discharged. Mr. Roloff also gave bail and was liberated.

PRETTY EXPERIMENT.—Professor Rogers has solved the problem of "seeing through a mill stone." In a paper read before the Scientific Association at Newport, he says:

"Take a sheet of foolscap or letter paper, roll it up so that the opening at one end shall be large enough to take in the full size of the eye, and at the other end let the opening be not half as large. Take it in the right hand, holding it between the thumb and the forefinger; place the large end to the right eye and look through it with both eyes, open to the light. You will see a hole through your hand. If you take it in your left hand it will be the same. You will in both cases be astonished to see that you have a hole in your hand. The illusion is most complete."

PERFUMERY IN CHURCH.—A lady writes the following to the editor of the Harrisburg Patriot & Union. As it applies in a degree to this section as well as Harrisburg, therefore we give our young folks the benefit of it. The lady writes: "I am sorry to be obliged to appeal to the power of the press for the correction of an evil so small in the eyes—and in the noses, too, of some—as 'church perfumery.' But, really, Mr. Editor, it makes me sick—it upsets my brain and nervous system too—I shall have to quit my pew. Do speak to the ladies on this subject before next Sunday; remind them, and some of the beaux, too, that of all smells no smell is the best smell."

☞ Upwards of twelve hundred young men, from twenty-eight different States, have been educated for business at the Iron City College, Pittsburgh, Pa., within the last three years, and of the large number graduating there, not one is known to have failed in being able to satisfy his employers, or to manage successfully the books entrusted to his care. This is the result of the settled policy of the school, to grant Diploma to none but thoroughly qualified and skillful accountants.—Pittsburgh True Press, Sept. 1860.

VISIT.—The Board of Directors of the Penn'a Railroad will arrive in this place, this (Thursday) evening, at 5.10, on a Special Train, and remain until Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, when they will return to the city in like manner.

DUFF'S COLLEGE.—At a meeting of the students of Duff's Mercantile College, Oct. 10th, who have been instructed in penmanship by Prof. W. H. Duff, convened according to notice in the College Hall, Mr. Wm. Williamson, of Athens, Pa., was appointed Chairman, and Mr. Geo. W. Over, of St. Clairsville, Pa., Secretary, when the following resolutions were read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, Mr. Duff excels all other teachers in the vicinity, as an ornamental, elegant, and rapid penman.

Resolved, That we are unanimously of the opinion that he also excels in the talent of communicating this art to others, and that we consider his superior style of "Business Penmanship," and his talents as a teacher, such as to entitle him to the fullest confidence of our friends and the public.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to Mr. Duff for the satisfactory improvement he has made in our writing, and for his untiring attention, and uniform courtesy to us while under his instructions.

Resolved, That the Chairman, Secretary, and members of this meeting, subscribe their names to these resolutions.

Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to our worthy Professor, and also that they be published in our city papers.

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON, Chairman.
GEO. M. OVER, Secretary.

☞ The story which was originated by one of our county papers, charging Gen. Irvin, of Lewistown, with having shot a man on the night of the election, is made out of "whole cloth"—no such thing having occurred. Gen. Irvin spoke at a Bell meeting, at Altoona, the night previous, and the story was no doubt the invention of some unscrupulous Republican.—Star.

The Tribune is the county paper alluded to above. As we made the amende honorable to Gen. Irvin, in our issue of last week, which the editor of the Star must have seen, our readers can judge of the character of the man who does the scribbling for that sheet. We received our first information of the Lewistown difficulty from a young telegraph operator from that place, about whose politics we know nothing.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Henry McCaulley, of Altoona, met with a severe accident, in this place on Thursday evening last. He was in the act of stepping into the door of the Wm. Penn Hotel, when he slipped and fell upon the pavement with such force as fractured the neck of his thigh bone. The fracture—which is a very bad one, the bone being considerably splintered, as well as broken—was reduced by Drs. Happersett and Landis, and he is now doing as well as could be expected, though it will probably be some time before he is able to be on his "pins" again.—Standard.

☞ Miss Jennie Scott would inform her old customers and the ladies in general that she has again opened out in her new building, a few doors above her old stand, and that she has just returned from the city with a large supply of fall and winter bonnets, cloaks, trimmings of all kinds, ladies and Misses hats, and everything in her line. She respectfully invites a call. Go and see her.

CHURCH CONSECRATION.—The Right Rev. Alonzo Potter, Bishop of Pennsylvania, will consecrate the Episcopal Church in Altoona, on Thursday, the first day of November next, God willing. The members, as also the friends of the church, are cordially invited to participate in the ceremonies. Excursion tickets will be issued from all stations in this county, to this place, on the Penn'a Railroad.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—The dwelling house of E. L. Faxson, at Maria Forges, in this county, together with all his household furniture and the wearing apparel of himself and family, were totally destroyed by fire on the 11th instant.—It is not known certainly how it originated, but it is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.—Standard.

☞ "Yank" Jones has resigned his position as engineer on the Branch, and Jim Stewart, his fireman, has been promoted to fill his place. We are happy to note Jim's good luck, as he deserves it, but we are sorry that the inimitable "Yank" is about to bid adieu to this "neck-o' timber." He goes to Jersey City, and may prosperity go with him.

PRESENTATION.—Col. Jackson, the well known popular and efficient Conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was presented with a magnificent diamond pin by the employees of the road on Monday night. The pin was worth $175, and was presented at the Athenæum, where the party partook of an excellent supper.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

APPOINTMENTS.—James T. Sargent has been appointed Route Agent between this place and Harrisburg, in room of C. F. Sargent, who has been appointed Conductor of the Mail Train in room of Col. Weitzel, resigned. Both gentlemen are well qualified for their positions.

CONTINUED.—Prothonotary Baldridge gives notice that the list of causes set down for trial on second week of Court, at this term, have all been continued, consequently jurors summoned for that week are notified not to attend.

WILD GEESE SHOT.—A flock of wild geese recently alighted in the Juniata between Lower Tyrone and Birmingham, and the sportsmen in that vicinity succeeded in killing ten of them. A man named Hoover killed one which weighed twenty-one pounds.

☞ We understand that the "Wide-Awakes" of this place intend going to Harrisburg, on the second Tuesday of January, to participate in the grand parade to come off at that place on the event of the inauguration of Col. Curtin as Governor.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for November contains a humorous frontispiece entitled "The First Pants," which is true to life; the fashion plates are beautiful, and the reading matter entertaining as usual. Price $2,00 per annum. C. J. Peterson, Philadelphia.

☞ We have a couple of letters on hand from our foreign correspondent, but can not find room for them this week. We will give them a place on our first page next week.

DYSPEPSY AND ITS SUPPOSED REMEDIES.—Dr. Tucker, of the Medical Journal, has no faith in bran bread, rye bread, etc., as remedies in dyspepsy. They are commonly supposed to exert a good feeling by keeping the bowels open by their mechanical effect of irritation; but it is an absurd idea to give indigestible bran to a stomach already weakened, and whose complaint is that it cannot digest. Bran and other mechanical irritants, though they may relieve the constipation, are not remedial, and only afford a present relief of one symptom, purchased at the risk of aggravating the real difficulty. Dr. Tucker believes that cold and stale wheat bread is the most digestible, and, therefore, the best.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along and will want an outfit, I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because as the season advances (the merchants in the east say) prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of

LADIES' DRESS GOODS

for the season, also a full assortment of

GROCERIES,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
LADIES' SHAKER BONNETS,

Misses' Felt and Straw Hats, and everything in the line of Dry Goods and Notions which it is unnecessary to enumerate. All of which will be sold for cash, or to prompt paying monthly customers, or exchanged for all articles of Produce which can be consumed here or exchanged for goods in the East.

JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.

A NEW BOOK and one destined to create a sensation. Just Published.

THE SUNNY SOUTH
OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME,

Embracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive.—Daily Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom tirade of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly, for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year.—Times, Greensboro, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, Geo. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers.—New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!!

NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.

THE THRONE OF DAVID,

From the consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom, being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye witness. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One vol. 12 mo., cloth, 603 pages Price $1.25.

"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated of in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David is treated of in this work, (The Throne of David.) while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation mark their delineation in the "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either maudlin, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 600 pages. Price $1.25.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interests."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID:
OR THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY.

In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the

LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH,

From his Baptism in Jordon to his Crucifixion on Calvary. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Miss. One volume, 12 mo. cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer.—The descriptions of rights and ceremonials, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Evangelist.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the neck, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy. Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW, AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE PHYSICIAN, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums reducing all inflammation will allay pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in thousands of cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.—We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world, and by G. W. Kessler and A. Roush, druggists, Altoona. Price 25 cents per bottle.

And testimonials, new and almost without number might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Professor Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth, to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1859.

PROF. WOOD:—Thee will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spots is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive in thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless." Thy friend,

SUSANNAH KIRBY.

LIGONIER, Noble Co., Ind., Feb. 5th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving from them no assurance that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect.

Very respectfully, yours,

A. M. LATTA,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Depot, 444 Broadway, and sold by all dealers throughout the world.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ¼ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds a pint twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

HAIR OILS, COLOGNES, POMades, Shaving Cream, Toilet Soaps, &c. for sale by [1-tf.] G. W. KESSLER.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when used with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 56 Dey St., and for sale by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my which after years of scientific experimenting I have brought to perfection. It dyes Black or Brown instantly without injury to the Hair or Skin, warranted the best article of the kind in existence.

New and Improved Instantaneous LIQUID HAIR DYE

Price, Only 50 Cents.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.

I have just received a stock of No. 1 French Brandy, for medicinal purposes.

Also a large stock of excellent Wines, for medicinal purposes, together with a lot of the best old Rye Whiskey to be found in the country.

MEDICATED FUR CHEST PROTECTOR, A SAFE SHIELD AGAINST THOSE fearful diseases Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion and the continual changes of our Climate, for sale at the Drug Store of G. W. KESSLER.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character, in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humours.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

MARRIAGE GUIDE—BEING A private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our system, and the production or prevention offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about, where it will be seen by any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or in postage stamps Address DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING

Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.
Altoona, May 26–3m JACOB SNYDER.
